First Onsite Health Clinics now have H1N1 flu shots

Today, the Frankfort First Onsite Clinics announced they have received a limited supply of H1N1 flu shots available on a first-come, first-served basis for state employees. State employees interested in receiving a shot should contact or visit one of the four Frankfort clinics. Most employees are covered by the Kentucky Employees' Health Plan (KEHP); however, the clinics will accept other health plan coverage.

Important First Onsite information:

- Appointments preferred but walk-ins welcome
- Your treatment record is held in strictest privacy
- Employees are required to use sick leave or personal time to visit the clinics
- These sites are located on state property, making medical visits more convenient and efficient
